Notice of Nondiscrimination

_____ follows federal civil rights laws. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. National origin includes limited English proficiency and primary language.

We give free help to people with disabilities, in a timely way, so they can talk with us and take part equally. This includes reasonable changes to our rules and practices, and qualified sign language interpreters. It also includes information in other formats, such as large print, braille and accessible electronic formats.

We give free language help to people whose first language is not English, in a timely way. This includes qualified interpreters. It also includes documents translated into other languages, on paper or electronically.
