Consent to Share Substance Use Disorder Treatment Records

Patient name: _____

Date of birth: _____

Patient ID: _____

Federal law (42 CFR Part 2) protects records of substance use disorder treatment. This form lets you choose who may use and share them.

Who may share my records

Program or provider: _____

What may be shared

☐ All of my substance use disorder treatment records
☐ Diagnosis and treatment plan
☐ Medications, including medications for opioid use disorder
☐ Attendance and progress
☐ Lab results, including drug tests
☐ Other (write below)

Other information or dates

This consent does not cover substance use disorder counseling notes. They need a separate consent.

Who may receive them, and why

☐ For treatment, payment and health care operations, now and later: my treating providers, health plans, third-party payers, and people helping to operate this program
☐ Only the person or organization below, for the purpose below

Person or organization: _____

Purpose (or: at my request): _____

If my records go to a health care provider, health plan or their business associate for treatment, payment or health care operations, they may share them again as the HIPAA rules allow. They may not use them in civil, criminal, administrative or legislative proceedings against me.

Records shared under this consent may be shared again by whoever receives them, and may then no longer be protected by 42 CFR Part 2.

If you do not sign, we cannot share these records for the purposes above. That may make it harder for your other providers to coordinate your care, and your health plan may not be billed for this care.

☐ I do not want any fundraising contact from _____.

How long this consent lasts

It ends on this date or event (for treatment, payment and operations, you may write: end of treatment, or none):

_____

Your right to revoke

You may revoke this consent at any time by writing to _____, except for what has already been done because of it.

This consent cannot be used for court or other legal proceedings against you. That needs its own consent.
