Your Rights and Responsibilities

At _____, you have the right to:

• Be treated with respect, kindness and fairness.
• Have your health information kept private.
• Get information about your health and care in words you understand.
• Have an interpreter or help with reading if you need it.
• Take part in decisions about your care.
• Say yes or no to any test or treatment.
• Know the names of the people who care for you.
• Ask for another opinion.
• See your health record and get a copy.
• Know about costs before your care when we can tell you.
• Make a complaint, by telling any of our staff or in writing, and get an answer, without being treated differently.

We ask you to:

• Tell us the truth about your health, your medicines and your past care.
• Tell us when your address, phone or insurance changes.
• Follow the care plan you agree to, or tell us if you cannot.
• Come to your visits, or call us if you cannot.
• Treat staff and other patients with respect.
• Pay your bills, or talk with us about a payment plan or a discount if paying is hard.
• Ask questions when you do not understand.

Questions or concerns? Ask at the front desk or call _____.
